

RESPECTFUL

EXCEL

- I carefully plan my work before I start because I understand that it leads to high quality products.
- I can explain in detail the value of diversity and it's importance. I ensure that diversity is embraced and any inequalities are challenged appropriately.
- I detect how other people are acting towards each other and find ways to promote positive language and to stop the use of unkind comments or jokes.
- I understand that respecting others does not stop with Sewell Park. I can explain why it is vital for society that public institutions and services must be treat with respect by all
- I behave with honesty and integrity; I can explain the value of honesty and integrity in professional and personal relationships.

EXTEND

- I carefully plan my work before I start because I understand that it leads to high quality products.
- I can detail some of the amazing cultures and different religious beliefs that people have.
- I am careful in my choice of words, avoiding saying things (even jokes) that might hurt the feelings of others.
- I always respond politely, even when challenged.
- I ensure I am honest and encourage honesty in others.

CORE

- I keep trying when something goes wrong and think about what happened and why.
- I work well with others by understanding and respecting the diversity of others' cultures, beliefs and backgrounds.
- I show I am listening with respect by how I use eye contact and body language.
- I understand the importance of respecting others, ensuring I use polite language and manners.
- I acknowledge it when I make a mistake and my behaviour is not respectful. I know that a swift and honest apology can help fix things.

SUPPORT

- I complete my work. I will find someone to help if I need it.
- I work well with others and can explain what diversity means and why it is important.
- When someone is speaking in class I listen to them without interrupting.
- I speak politely to others. If I am rude to another person I quickly apologise.
- I follow instructions given by my teacher. I understand that the adults in the room are there to help.
- I understand that honesty is highly values and I tell the truth.